

MRS. WOODILL'S SLAYER MAY HAVE BEEN A WOMAN

Secretary Gage Angry Over Name Being Used in Story—Woodill Ignorant Of Wife's Previous Life

ST. MICHAELS, Md., June 25.—Nothing of his wife's origin or parentage, and appeared surprised that Gage refused to throw light on the girl's history.

MRS. WOODILL WAS DIVORCED FROM WALTER L. CASWELL

BOSTON, June 25.—Mrs. Edith Woodill was the divorced wife of Walter L. Caswell of Boston, an osteopath, at the time she married Gilbert Woodill little more than a year ago. She was a friend of Katherine Tingley, the Point Loma "Purple Mother."

She studied theosophy several years and lived in Brooklyn near here for several years. Her friends say she was placed in the Point Loma school by Secretary Lyman Gage. No friend knew of her acquaintance with Roberts nor anything about him. Prior to her marriage with Woodill she was reported engaged to Harry F. Adams, of Mount Vernon, whom she jilted.

Gage's Stepdaughter Talks

CHICAGO, June 25.—Mrs. Edwin F. Pierce, the stepdaughter of Lyman J. Gage today said her father first met Edith Thompson Woodill at Baltimore where she lived with her foster parents. He took an interest in the girl and is said to have sent her to school. That was before the death of the first Mrs. Gage.

Roberts Shot by Posse

ST. MICHAELS, Md., June 25.—Emmett Roberts, the slayer of Mabel Thompson Woodill, was shot to death by the sheriff's posse while resisting arrest at 4 o'clock this morning. Roberts, who was surrounded by the posse, refused to surrender and fell mortally wounded. He died soon after.

Roberts was killed by the posse in the revolver duel near the wharf at McDaniel, Md., the home of the woman's foster father, Captain Charles H. Thompson. He was approaching the wharf in a small boat when the officers sprang from their places of concealment and called upon him to surrender. He opened fire and was soon shot dead.

Almost simultaneously with Roberts' first shot Deputy Sheriffs Meyer and Crone opened fire. Deputy Wiley joined the fusillade and after a number of shots on both sides, Roberts dropped. He was shot through the mouth and died instantly. He had a bottle of poison in his pocket and a number of letters.

LOS ANGELES, June 25.—Denying he had given out an interview regarding the history of his wife, and branding as fakes the stories attributed to him concerning her parentage and death, Gilbert Woodill, the stricken husband of the murdered woman, today said that Lyman J. Gage knew more about his late wife than he himself had been able to learn. He said:

"I know my wife was divorced from Caswell when she married me, but I knew little else about her. I knew that Lyman J. Gage was fully acquainted with her life before she married me. I never inquired into the adoption of my wife by Captain Thompson of Maryland but knew that papers legalizing the adoption were on file in Baltimore and knew they contained data."

During the interview Woodill's brother, H. B. Woodill, former police commissioner here, acted as spokesman. Woodill admitted that he knew

FORD CAR, NO. 1 WAS THIRD IN BIG RACE

Had Mishap in Mountain Pass and Motor Had to be Rebuilt

SEATTLE, June 25.—Ford car No. one, the third in the New York to Seattle cross country race, arrived at the finish line at the Exposition at 1:40 this morning, in charge of Frank Kulick and H. H. Harper.

The car struck a rock in Snoqualmie Pass, where the crew was obliged to completely rebuild the motor before proceeding.

PROTEST MADE AGAINST AWARD TO FORD CAR

SEATTLE, June 25.—A formal protest has been lodged against the award of the Guggenheim cup and cash prize of $2000 to Ford car No. 2, which arrived in Seattle first in an over-the-country race. The protest was made by James B. Howe, representing the Shawmut factory. He brings affidavits to show that the Ford car crossed on a railroad bridge, when the wagon bridge was washed out, despite the fact that the Shawmut car, first at the railroad bridge, was not allowed to cross. This delayed the Shawmut sixteen hours.

It is said that the Ford car arrived with a new axle, thus breaking the rule that no new axles were to be put in. It is also charged that the Ford car had a volunteer pilot through the Snoqualmie Pass.

FERRYBOAT TO TAKE PASSENGERS ACROSS

BALBOA, June 24.—The Balboa Island Company has launched a large ferryboat, which will carry passengers to and from the foot of Palm street to the island.

Postmaster Beckwith received word from Los Angeles today that his aunt, Mrs. Sylvia A. Smith of Wilton Place, and a former Balboa resident, died at 2 o'clock this morning. She was nearly 80 years old.

MERGER OF TELEGRAPH COMPANIES IS DENIED

PHILADELPHIA, June 25.—The Evening Bulletin last night said: "Although interests identified with the American Telephone and Telegraph Company denied the report that the company had secured control of the Western Union Telegraph Company, nevertheless, the rumor that a deal had been communicated between the two would not down today."

SCHOLARSHIP FUND

RIVERSIDE, June 25.—At the annual meeting of the Riverside High School Alumni Association it was decided to establish a scholarship fund for the aid of worthy and deserving alumni. The trustees of the fund selected were: A. N. Wheelock, city superintendent of schools; Miss Eugenie Fuller, principal of the High School; G. E. Doie, William A. Johnson and Lloyd Edmiston.

SEASON FUMIGATING HAS BEEN COMMENCED

A number of small jobs of fumigating are being done over the county. In about two weeks some of the heavy work will begin. The county will have two outfits in the field this year as usual, one in the Orange territory and one in the Anaheim-Placentia territory. The county tents are marked for the Wogum dose, which consists of the proportion of one ounce of sulphuric acid and one ounce of cyanide to three ounces of water.

FIFTY DIE OF HEAT IN NEW YORK THIS WEEK

Hospitals Are Overflowing and the Death List Liable to Grow Larger

NO ABATEMENT OF HEAT; MERCURY AT 82 TODAY

Summer Resorts Crowded and Many Beaches Are Huge Camping Grounds

NEW YORK, June 25.—More than fifty persons are dead as a result of the hot wave which attacked this city a few days ago and of which there is yet no signs of abatement.

Early today the indications were that the suffering would be more intense than during any day since the heat began. The mercury showed 82 degrees this morning.

The hospitals are already overflowing and the death list will be larger unless the heat wave breaks. Thousands are sleeping out of doors and all the summer resorts are crowded. Many of the cheaper beaches are huge camping grounds.

MOUNTAIN FIRE WIPES OUT THOUSAND ACRES

CAMP RINCON, June 25.—Fighting fire in the San Geronimo Canon, where the world stands on end, a dozen fire wardens, aided by visitors at Camp Rincon, defeated the first conflagration of the season Wednesday, but not until 1000 acres had been whipped by the flames.

SUTRO WILL SET ASIDE BY SUPREME COURT

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—The Adolf Sutro will has been invalidated by the Supreme court which yesterday ordered a distribution of the property among the heirs. This takes from the city of San Francisco all of Sutro Heights, the Cliff House and a wide sweep of ocean property.

Hurt in Accident

Huntington Beach News: Mrs. A. B. Sholly, who is visiting relatives and friends at South Bend, Indiana, was injured last Saturday in an interurban street railroad collision in that city. Manager Roberts has the best show in the Temple Theater he has ever had. Tomorrow at 12:30 Mrs. Effie Hill will go up in the balloon and come down by parachute.

A Picnic Sandwich

The sandwich is the picnic stand-by, of course, and unusually good ones can be made by baking a pan of little round rolls, cutting the tops nearly off when they are cold, scooping out some of the crumb, and filling them with chicken chopped and reduced to a stiff paste with cream. They may be seasoned highly with salt and black pepper, and celery salt if liked. Woman's Home Companion for July.

MRS. GOULD WINS IN SEPARATION SUIT

Judge Dowling Exonerates Her From All Charges—Alimony to be $3,000 a Month

NEW YORK, June 25.—Justice Bowling this afternoon completely exonerated Mrs. Katherine Clemons Gould of all charges made against her by her husband, Howard Gould, and granted her a separation and alimony of $3000 monthly.

Denying she ever had any affection for Dustin Farnum, declaring every witness who said they saw her intoxicated swore falsely, Mrs. Howard Gould resumed the stand today. Richly dressed and wearing costly pearls, she resisted the grilling by the opposing attorney successfully and parried questions cleverly. When the attorney declared that during a thirteen hour auto ride the theatrical business as a topic of discussion must have been exhausted, she replied, "the theatrical business as a topic of discussion is practically inexhaustible."

INCOME TAX DOWNED OVER IN GERMANY

BERLIN, June 25.—The government was defeated in the Reichstag today by 195 votes to 187 in the proposal to extend inheritance taxes to direct descendants.

The dissolution of parliament, it is expected will be the result of the vote, as the revenue from this source was regarded by the government as necessary to carry out its plans.

LOS ANGELES, June 25.—After being held incommunicado for nearly twenty-four hours, Orlando F. Altorre, clerk at the postoffice at the time of the big registered mail robbery, was taken to the county jail yesterday afternoon, upon an indictment formally charging him with the theft of $15,000 entrusted to the care of the postal department by the First National Bank of this city.

To Freshen Flowers

If cut flowers from the florist's or garden are placed as soon as possible in cold water in which a little mild soap has been dissolved, making suds, they will keep fresh much longer than usual, and will even freshen up wonderfully if they have already dropped. Also, if one wishes to keep roses in bud for some time, a soft thread should be tied snugly around the bud, and when ready for use, even though several days after picking, the rose will be found as snug a bud as when first tied up, and, moreover, will not shatter as soon as ordinarily.—Woman's Home Companion for July.

Cottage Burned

Frank Benchley's cottage, on West Thirtieth street, in Los Angeles, was destroyed by fire on Saturday evening, about 10 o'clock, the fire originating from some unknown cause, probably electric wires. The family was absent at the time, and knew nothing of the fire until it was all over. The loss on the building is estimated at $1000, and on the contents $500, partially covered by insurance.

In fact, permits have been let or permits issued for everything named in the list except the Congregational church and the school buildings. A small portion consists of work just completed.

The list totals $196,100. On the list a large number of permits for repairs; barns, additions, etc., permits for amounts running from $25 up to $350 do not appear.

The chances are that each month will see between $10,000 and $20,000 additional in dwellings. It is reported that Samson Edwards is likely to put up a $12,000 brick building adjoining the Anderson block now being built at the corner of Third and Main.

The year 1909 is a big year for the builders and contractors, substantial evidence of the prosperity and progressiveness of Santa Ana.

THREE ACCIDENTS TO A MAN IN ONE DAY

Eng. Hansen Survives Burns, a Near-drowning Affair and An Auto Crash

SANTA ROSA, June 25.—In a hospital at Westport is Chief Engineer Hansen of the steam schooner Phoenix, suffering from injuries sustained in three accidents in one day.

Hansen was scalded aboard the ship off the Mendocino coast when a steam pipe burst. The captain, believing the burns to be fatal, put for shore in a small boat with Hansen, in order to get him to the hospital. The boat capsized, and Hansen, being unconscious, was saved from drowning with difficulty. Hansen was placed in an automobile, which, in speeding over a rough road, leaped over a bank and plunged 150 feet to the creek bed. Three of Hansen's ribs and his right shoulder were broken, and the car demolished. The suffering man was finally delivered at the hospital, where it is said that he will survive.

DR. HUFF DENIES PARESIS THEORY

Says Henry Grassme Died of Shock Following Violence

SAN BERNARDINO, June 25.—

"Henry Grassme died from shock following violence, not from general paresis," was the testimony of Dr. F. W. Huff of Los Angeles, today in the preliminary hearing of former attendant Hans Berg, charged with Grassme's death at Patton. The inquiry has not yet touched on hospital affairs and it will probably be late this evening before the hospital witnesses are examined.

W. W. Walter of Los Angeles, an embalmer, said Grassme's bones appeared fragile, and Coroner Hartwell of Los Angeles said the bones were small and very fragile. Dr. Huff said the bone was of good quality and flatly contradicted hospital surgeons that Grassme died of paresis.

VALLEJO, June 25.—The physicians attending Patrick Sutton of San Francisco, a bitumen expert, who was terribly burned in a gas explosion late yesterday, hold little hope for his recovery. Sutton's face was so terribly seared and charred by the flames that it was unrecognizable by the family.

The explosion came while Sutton was bending over a pot of boiling bitumen in the local plant. The fiery fluid covered his entire body.

APPARATUS TO FIGHT FLAMES

Huntington Beach to Have a Sixty-Gallon Chemical Engine—Library Trustees

Huntington Beach News: At last the city trustees have decided to get busy in the matter of buying suitable fire equipment for this city and on Monday evening instructed the city clerk to advertise for bids for a sixty-gallon chemical engine and three hundred and fifty feet of rubber-lined, single-jacket, cotton hose. They also bought of the city of Long Beach a second-hand hose cart which is said to be in good condition. Owing to the removal of Chief James Philp from this city it is probable that Assistant Chief Rufus Wilson will be named as chief at a meeting of the fire company to be held this week.

Permission was granted to the Southern California Sugar company of Santa Ana to obstruct Frankfort street temporarily by the building of a beet dump. Attorney Hadsall of that company appeared before the trustees to explain the reason for building the temporary dump which he did, satisfactorily.

A communication was received from the library trustees notifying the city fathers that the newly-appointed directors had been classified as follows: Mrs. R. H. Lindgren, one year, A. W. Everett and Mrs. S. L. Blodgett, two years, and Mrs. William Manske and Mrs. E. S. Vincent, three years. Mrs. Lindgren's term expiring, therefore, on the thirtieth of the present month she was at once reappointed by the city trustees and will now serve for three years. Three hundred dollars were set aside to the library fund.

DIP CATTLE AT POLLORINO

About 200 Head Pass Through Bath at McFadden's Pit—Old Newport Notes

OLD NEWPORT, June 24.—The young people of the Epworth League held a social at the school-house last Friday evening. The program consisted of a humorous reading by Mrs. J. Harlin, a recitation by Miss Hazel Nealley, a solo by Miss Beatrice Nealley, a dialogue about a girl's club that went to pieces over mice and men by Misses Beatrice Nealley, Daisy Cree, Ethel and May Walton, Juanita Bradbury, Sadie McClain and Mary Johnston, and a debate upon Woman's Suffrage. The question as put was: Resolved, that women should be given the elective franchise. Mr. Phil McClintock and Miss Ethel Walton spoke for the negative while Mrs. Adams and Robert Speed upheld the affirmative. Mr. Cree, Mrs. R. Tedford and Mrs. M. Youngling acting as judges awarded the decision to the speakers for the affirmative. After the program ice cream was served and $11 raised for the Epworth League.

Revival meetings began at the church Sunday. Considerable interest is manifested among the residents and there has been a good attendance from the beginning.

The affairs of the Delhi drainage system are going forward in a business like way. The directors elected June 15, have been going over the ground this week mapping out the location of the ditches. A bond election will be held as soon as possible after which the dirt will begin to fly. Actual work began Monday of this week on the outlet into the bay. The sugar factory people are praying for this work at present expecting to be reimbursed for their outlay by the district later on. The sugar factory will use the outlet for its own surplus water.

The young people of this burg went to Balboa last Saturday night on a haywagon. After the dance ended they returned home. They say they enjoyed every minute from the time they left until they reached home again.

Mr. McFadden's dipping pit at Pollorino is a scene of activity this morning, as a gang of McFadden's men are dipping about 200 head of cattle.

Cottolene

Shortens your food—Lengthens your life

If you knew that lard was unhealthy, would you still eat lard-soaked food? Even lard manufacturers admit that there is only enough pure leaf lard made to supply one-tenth the lard consumption. How do you know that you are not one of the other nine-tenths who are taking grave chances?

Cottolene is a pure vegetable product, which contains no hog fat. It makes wholesome, digestible, healthful food. Why take chances with swine fat?

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

—by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Long Beach is usually in the limelight. It's a dull day when Long Beach can't build a hotel or a harbor or a ship-building plant; or hold an annexation or a bond election; or recall its city officers and elect new ones; and there is always the fight of the liquor interests to break into Long Beach, and the determined defense against their assaults by the veterans of many victories over the rum power.

Useless agitation is always bad; but much of the civic turmoil of the "Queen of the Beaches" is due to its moral and physical vitality.

Just now Long Beach has a strenuous and somewhat original mayor—Chas. H. Windham by name. Windham is a business man—an ex-railroad man—one of the original planners and promoters of Long Beach's famous inner harbor, now rapidly nearing completion. He regards his office as he would the presidency of a great corporation, with an actual paid-up invested capital of from $40,000,000 to $50,000,000 and from 20,000 to 25,000 stockholders—the property owners and voters of Long Beach. Every now and then he calls a meeting of his stockholders and reports and explains to them what their directors (the city council of Long Beach) are doing.

Taxes have been pretty high in Long Beach, and a short time ago when Mayor Windham proposed to pay the next year's current expenses of the city on a 75 per cent tax rate, the knowing ones raised their eyebrows and announced that they were from Missouri. It was thought that the mayor was just a little optimistic. And so he may have been, but a careful perusal of the showing made on the subject of municipal expenses in the July number of Success Magazine, may result in a revision of the popular idea on this subject.

It is therein pretty conclusively shown that the normal town ought to be run without taxes, and if taken young, and before it has been exploited, actually pay dividends, which calls to mind Mayor Windham's idea that Long Beach is a $50,000,000 corporation, and that the mayor and council are merely its manager and board of directors.

Speaking of taking a town when it is young and before it has been exploited, Fairhope, Iowa, is pointed out as an instance of what can be done. It was founded on the principal advanced by Mayor Windham, and after fourteen years it "is thriving happily," we are told. It has three free schools, a water system without rates, a public dock, a free library without a Carnegie foundation, and a telephone system with absolutely no charges within the county!

And all these things are furnished and paid for by the municipality, free of any taxes to the people of the town, after paying the state and county taxes and after paying all the costs of administration and improvements.

Of course this town was organized in a plan specially adapted to the purpose of paying its way without taxes, and the same results cannot be expected in towns established on the old lines. But the showing is that municipalities are needlessly taxed to an enormous extent, and it is actually proved and demonstrated that they could be self-sustaining.

In New York there is a waste of $50,000,000 each year, which has to be made up by the tax payers. A town of 4,500 inhabitants in Ontario is using instead of selling its franchises, and nets $25,000 a year therefrom. And so, many ways are pointed out to save as well as to make money by which, it is claimed, taxes should be nothing, and in some cases dividends could be paid.

There is no doubt but that the current manner of running municipal governments could be greatly improved upon, and furthermore that the item of taxation is greatly affected by the way the business is run. A business administration such as that furnished Long Beach by Mayor Windham and his colleagues, will, if continued for the next two years, undoubtedly illustrate this by further reductions in taxation.

FIT

YOU want your clothes to fit, of course; some men consider fit so important that they pay extra prices for it; or send their measurements away to some unknown maker; or go to other trouble, thinking that fit in clothes is a matter of exact inches this way or that.

Fit is in the way clothes hang; the designer has more to do with it than any one else; if he drapes the garment right and you get your general size, the clothes will fit.

That's why Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes fit so well; they're designed for it. And the fit lasts, because of all-wool fabrics, thorough tailoring and the right models.

We want you to wear Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes for the good you'll get out of them.

THE KANSAS TIN SHOP

Would perhaps quit advertising were it not that we like to "see the name in print" and then if we don't blow our own horn that particular horn might not be blown and if our horn ain't blown there would be less music in the world. So to keep the fun going we continue to advertise, that is we blow for the Kansas Tin Shop.

The Kansas Tin Shop is "doin' bizness" every day ceptin' Sunday and a few of the holidays with which this state is favored.

We are not only buying and selling and trying to corral a few nickels wherewith to keep our several heads dry when it rains out of doors, and against that day when we shall have no use for the nickels. It would be real funny to see everybody trying for the same thing if it was not so pathetic, and still we, that is, the Kansas Tin Shop and those numerous Tinnors and Plumbers keep on Plumbing and Tinning and it will probably be so to the end of the chapter.

If, before you get there, you want anything in the line of hardware or desire a good job of plumbing, call on

The Neighbors' Club

Mrs. W. F. Lutz was hostess to the ladies of the Neighbors' Club yesterday afternoon. Her home was fragrant with sweet peas and beautiful pansies.

The afternoon was an unusually pleasant one, and there was a goodly attendance of the club ladies. Mrs. Chas. Kelly was a guest of the club. A handsome Regina music box played sweet melodies during the afternoon as the ladies sewed and chatted. Delicious refreshments, daintily served, were the climax of the pleasant meeting.

Picnic at Newport

For Miss Hossler

Miss Ina Collins had ten of the girl friends of Miss Hutoqua Hossler at her home yesterday afternoon to spend a few hours with that young lady before her departure tomorrow for a summer's visit to Nebraska.

Each girl had with her a gift for Miss Hossler on which she worked during the afternoon. Songs by Miss Hossler and Mary Wakeham and a piano number by Miss Jennie McFadden were enjoyed. Refreshments were served in the dining room where covers were laid at a dainty two-course spread for the hostess and her guests who were: Misses Hutoqua Hossler, Margaret and Mary Wakeham, Pauline Parsons, Gertrude Montgomery, Georgia Barnes, Lena Thomas, Iva Miller, Jennie McFadden, Mrs. Hanson.

For Miss Ames of Long Beach Mrs. A. J. Visel entertained last evening with a charming six o'clock dinner for Miss Ames of Long Beach, a Stanford girl. A very jolly time was had, and the young people later attended the high school dance.

A Pretty Wedding

The home of Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Gordon was a scene of unusual joy and beauty Wednesday evening, June 23, when the eldest son of Mrs. Gordon, Edward H. Darling of Huntington Beach, was united in marriage to Miss Lillian Blanche Hawke of Long Beach.

At half past eight o'clock, to the soft strains of a wedding march, the bride and groom entered the parlors and took their places beneath a canopy of fern. From this was suspended a beautiful wedding bell of carnations and maiden hair fern, from which a pure white dove appeared to be soaring. Rev. J. A. Stevenson solemnly and impressively pronounced the wedding ceremony, using the ring service. Only the relatives and immediate friends of the bridal couple were present.

With her gentle, unassuming manner, the bride presented a beautiful picture, gowned in soft white silk, with a long flowing veil, and carryig a bridal bouquet of Lilies of the Valley and maiden hair fern. The groom wore a conventional suit of black.

All the rooms were heavily festooned with ferns, reaching from the corners of the rooms to the electroliers, from which hung baskets of sweet peas and ferns, making a veritable bower of flowers and greenery. The front and back parlors were in white sweet peas, and the dining room in pink sweet peas. The candles on the tables radiated a soft home to their many friends, in Huntington Beach, after August 1.

Mrs. Darling is a popular young lady in Long Beach and Huntington Beach, as she, with her mother, has spent several seasons there. Their former home was in Ohio.

Mr. Darling is well known throughout Orange county. He is a young man of superior character and is termed "the old reliable" wherever known. He grew up in Santa Ana, beginning business here by going to work in Halsell's drug store, now the White Cross Drug Store, later graduating in pharmacy. For the past three years he has had charge of the drug store at Huntington Beach, in which he now owns an interest.

The many friends of the young couple wish for them the best there is going, prosperity, peace and plenty.

Among the out of town guests were Mrs. Mary Hawke, Mr. Ed. Hawke, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. James of Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. A. D. McKunns, Misses Helen Hawke and Herold, Wm. Fitch, Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Hall of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Warner, Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Wilson, Dr. and Mrs. Shank of Huntington Beach; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Patterson of Westminster; Mr. Oliver Halsell, Ernest Madden, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. James, Misses Helen Young and Hope Trickey, Misses Mary and Celia Cotter, of Santa Ana.

UNDEDICATED STATUE OF WEST VIRGINIA HERO

Provokes Comment—Embryo Diplomats Taking Physical Exam—Knut Nelson Wants Duty on Art Works

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Standing in the row of white and rigid heroes (and one heroine) in statuary hall at the capitol is a neglected marble representation of Francis H. Pierpont, one of West Virginia's historic figures. He is known as the first governor of West Virginia, although his term of service was at the head of the provisional government that ruled the state from the time of its secession from Virginia, in 1861, until it was admitted to the union in 1863.

In recognition of his able service in the movement to chisel a new state out of old Virginia, and his record as governor, West Virginia chose the old stalwart as one of the two figures to represent that state in statuary hall.

Three years ago they "set" the statue of Governor Pierpont in the noble row. But, three long years have passed with their frosts and crops and baseball championships, and Pierpont has not yet been dedicated. Every one of his associates in the silent galaxy has been made the subject of laudatory speeches. Pierpont has been treated like a defeated candidate.

He stands there wearing a light overcoat, as though doubtful of his welcome and uncertain of his status, in striking contrast, in these days of 95 degrees up, to Fulton, in his shirt-sleeves, sits on a chair across the hall examining a ship model.

Clutched in his right hand and held at his breast, Pierpont holds a roll of marble manuscript, a speech vainly prepared, apparently, for delivery in answer to dedicatory eulogiums which he has longed for but which have never come. A glance at the noble features makes it plain that there has been no dedication. The eyes are turned resentfully toward the corridor that leads to the House of Representatives, as though to reproach members of the West Virginia delegation who may loom into view. A pale complexion and tightly closed lips suggest suppressed anger and humiliation, the sort of emotion that comes to some when they have suffered a slight that they are too dignified to recognize and too human not to feel keenly.

So the Great Undedicated just stands and stands; "among those present," but not a member of the club.

Why hasn't he been dedicated? The West Virginia delegation are silent as echo or the marble governor, on the subject. They don't know.

Senator Scott has a dedicatory speech three years old, from which he has been willing to brush the dust at any time in order to place Pierpont in good standing, but nobody has made the arrangements. A couple of the representatives have partly prepared speeches, and Senator Elkins is ready any day to contribute an oration off-hand.

Recently protests have been made by West Virginians and there is a fair prospect that soon statuary hall will resound with sorrowing expressions of eulogy and that a regularly dedicated hero will stand on his rights as firmly as on his pedestal.

Applicants for the diplomatic service are now being examined physically as well as mentally and politically, and those who would shine as future ministers and ambassadors will find it to their advantage to consult a beauty doctor before visiting Washington and putting in an appearance at the State Department. Just now there are fourteen young men being examined by a naval surgeon to ascertain if they are sound in wind and leg, heart and lungs. If they have any impediments in their speech, harelips, teeth misplaced or lost, or noses awry as the result of football combats, it is quite probable that they will wait a long time for their credentials to the court of St. James, the Republic of France, or the blossom bedecked throne of the Emperor of China.

"The fourteen young men who are now submitting to physical examinations," said a high official of the State Department, "are what is left of a class of twenty-six that took the first written examinations for places in the diplomatic service. The mere fact that they answered the questions on paper successfully does not give them any assurance whatever that they will ever get places abroad, for they may not suit in other ways.

Many a man who can reel off learning from the point of his pen is a perfect idiot when it comes to the affairs of the world. We do not want any freaks in our diplomatic and consular service. And as the ministers and secretaries, as well as the more important ambassadors frequently request leave on account of ill health we have come to the conclusion that it will be a mighty fine idea to start the young men in the service as near whole as we can. In other words, we do not want any lame ducks to start with. If they go lame in the work, all right; we will do our best to take care of them."

For the purpose of training these would-be diplomats in their duties, Secretary Knox has started a school at the State Department. John H. Gregory, secretary of the legation at Nicaragua, who has experienced in Managua in the last few months all the troubles that a secretary is ever likely to inherit, even to persecution by the government to which he is accredited, and the tampering with official dispatches, is one of the teachers. G. Cornell Farler, secretary of the Cuban legation, is another. John Barrett, director of the bureau of American Republics, who has had extensive diplomatic experience at various posts and has reason to know the shortcomings of the junior members of the diplomatic service, particularly in South and Central America, is another.

The school was established with the view of preventing some of the fiascos that have been brought about through the ignorance and lack of experience on the part of newly appointed secretaries. The archives of the department are clogged with useless dispatches and valueless reports from secretaries of this type which would bring discredit upon an average American schoolboy.

The course in the diplomatic school comprises a series of lectures on general questions that come before the attention of secretaries relating to citizenship, commercial problems, and other subjects. When this course is completed the appointees to the consular service will be instructed by experienced members of the service.

While the question of admitting art works free was up in the Senate, rugged Knute Nelson of Minnesota, reckoned that men rich enough to buy pictures and antiquities abroad at fabulous prices were also rich enough to pay duties on them. He admires art, however, and that he might not be misunderstood, he explained:

"I do not want to be held up as a barbarian from the wild West. If there is anything I enjoy it is a fine painting. I never go to New York but that I go up to Central Park and visit that fine art gallery. I am reminded of an incident that occurred some years ago. I was going up one of the corridors of the museum, and on the wall there was a fine lot of paintings of the Flemish school of the seventeenth century—barnyard scenes; elegant; in the finest colors; lifelike. A stout old lady, with a black silk dress on, and her daughter were there. They had more jewelry and diamonds than my whole farm and possessions in Minnesota are worth; and as they were going up the old lady got her eye on that picture and she said, 'Julia, do you notice how that pig curls his ears?' That was the one thing which struck her in that important picture, while I, a rude barbarian from the wild West, stood there and admired that picture as much as any picture in that noble art gallery. I make these remarks because I do not want the senator from Massachusetts (Lodge) or anyone else, to understand that I am opposed to art."

SEE THE WOMEN SAW WOOD

Unique Contest Takes Place Tonight at Kamama's Big Free Show Grounds—Kamama Will Give Away One Thousand Dollars Worth of Medicine Tonight—Public Amazed at Wonders Seen.

One of the largest and most enthusiastic crowds saw the great Kamama's big free show last night, at the corner of Fourth and Broadway. Everyone was pleased, and you could see satisfaction written on the faces of the audience, and when the Southern Quartette appeared, it was greeted with great applause. The show was exceptionally good last night from the opening of the first part until the close, and each one of the company received a generous amount of applause. The much talked of wood-sawing contest will take place tonight. A commercial traveler last night in the audience said: "Kamama is one of the best fellows I have ever met. He is a big, liberal hearted fellow, and never stops at a few hundred or a thousand to get the best talent. He believes in originality, and tonight he is going to give away some beautiful presents to the woman who proves herself the best wood-sawyer. Sticks of wood will be provided and to the fortunate woman who first saws through a stick of timber the presents will be given. Kamama's manager stated that tonight Kamama will start to distribute thousands of dollars worth of his medicines, and all who come tonight will have the opportunity of taking home a package of Kamama's wonderful nerve tonic and his Oil of Life, as well as his catarrh crystals. Never in the history has there been such a man as Kamama; coming here practically unknown five weeks ago, Kamama soon gained the confidence of the people by his wonderful deafness and rheumatic cures. In the shops, on the streets and in the stores we hear Kamama spoken of as a man who has done wonderful good. Yesterday when a newspaper man came to Kamama's offices, the parlor and hall-way was crowded with the suffering humanity, all anxious, and all eager to be the first to see and test the healing power of this wonderful man. A special program has also been arranged for Saturday night.—(Adv.)

The Value of Good Digestion

Is easy to figure if you know what your stomach is worth. Kodol keeps the stomach at par value, by insuring good digestion. Kodol cures Dyspepsia.

Kodol insures good digestion by absolutely duplicating Nature's normal process, in perfectly digesting all food taken into the stomach.

While Kodol is doing this, the stomach is resting—and becoming strong and healthy. A strong and healthy stomach guarantees a sound and active brain.

The man with a sound stomach—a stomach that is doing for the body just what Nature intended it to do—is the man who is always prepared for any emergency. He is "there with the goods."

The man with a sick stomach, is a man sick all over. When the stomach is irritated by undigested food, the blood and heart are directly affected. Then dullness, unnatural sleepiness, sick-headaches, vertigo and fainting spells, and even serious brain trouble develop. Kodol will prevent these.

Spurring the stomach and brain to special effort by "tonics" and "stimulants" doesn't cure anything, or accomplish any good. Neither does dieting. Indigestion and the serious ailments which it induces can be averted and corrected only by natural means.

Kodol supplies this natural means. It performs the stomach's work for it—just as the stomach should perform it—while the stomach takes a little rest, "for the stomach's sake."

Our Guarantee

Then after you have used the entire contents of the bottle if you can honestly say, that it has not done you any good, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money without question or delay. We will then pay the druggist for the bottle. Don't hesitate, all druggists know that our guarantee is good. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family. The large bottle contains 2 1/2 times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

An entire car of watermelons was received here yesterday for the first time this year. They came as all watermelons of the early season do, from Imperial Valley. The arrival of the car was the beginning of the lower prices on watermelons for the entire season. They dropped to 2½ cents a pound when purchased in quantity. There were slight declines in cantaloupes, which are daily arriving in larger quantities—from one to three cars every twenty-four hours. The consumers are taking care of all that arrive. Cherries from Ashland, Ore., were the only feature of arrivals of that kind. These are packed according to the new ideal method of handling fruit, in cartons, thus going directly from the packer to the consumer without being changed from box to basket and basket to box innumerable times, as is the case with loose fruit. The Ashland cherries sell at 75 cents per drawer, containing eight cartons. Cherries from the central part of the state were so plentiful that dealers were glad to take about anything that was offered within reason. White cherries are particularly plentiful and they brought from 3 to 7 cents.

The egg market continues very firm on local stock. Some case count eggs were sold at 25½ cents a dozen, a fractional premium above the regular price. Eastern fresh eggs moved freely at 23 cents. This low price was made by a dealer carrying too much eastern fresh stock, which he desired to clean up. Receipts of locals were only 266 cases.

Butter arrivals were 25,318 pounds. The market on butter is variable. Creamery extra yesterday sold at 56½ cents per two-pound square, just 1 cent below the market price. Lard butter was in fair demand.

Cheese receipts were 1087 pounds. Limberger, Northern fresh and Eastern Twins were the best sellers of the day. There were no changes.

The decline in spuds, which has been expected for some time, came yesterday. The tubers sold at $1.50 for the fancy Early Rose and 10 cents higher on early Burbanks, which are just beginning to arrive. A car of northern stock was shipped in. Onion receipts were scarce. The market on them was firm throughout.

PRECHT WINS IN SODA SUIT

Jury Out Twenty Minutes and Brings in a Verdict for Defendant

In the superior court yesterday it took a jury twenty minutes only after retirement to reach a decision in favor of the defendant in the suit of the Pacific Coast Soda Co. against R. L. Precht of Orange. The soda company brought suit against Precht to compel him to pay $1000 for stock. Precht's defense was that unfair means had been used to secure his signature to an agreement to take the stock. It was represented to him by the agent that he should sign at once if he wanted any stock. Precht signed with the stipulation that the signature should stand only in case Mrs. Precht agreed to the taking of the stock. Mrs. Precht would not agree to it, but the agent refused to release Precht.

SUIT BROUGHT BY BORCHARD

Two Notes Concerned in Foreclosure Action Aggregate
$30,000

One of the largest foreclosure suits brought in this county for many months was begun today by Attorneys Williams & Rutan for Casper Borchard against M. and Handell Kujawsky. One of the notes sued on is for $22,000 and the other $8000. The property concerned is 264 acres in the lowlands, sold in 1906 to Kujawsky by Borchard, the plaintiff in the suit.

The two notes were given on Nov. 23, 1906. The $22,000 note was a four year note and the $8000 note a one-year note. Interest has not been paid. The notes bore seven per cent. Judgment asked includes $2500 attorney's fees.

BASHFUL JOE IS KISSED BY BRIDE

He Thought It Would Do to Wait Until They Got Home

Bashful Joe Brandt had never been married before, so how was he to know that he might kiss the bride. The bride, just made Mrs. Joe Brandt, had been married before and she knew.

This morning County Clerk Williams began filling out the certificates that, like the family bible, gets the record of family ties. Under the new law the clerk must fill out this certificate, a duty hitherto imposed upon the person performing the ceremony.

Joe Brandt came into the courthouse after a marriage license. He didn't know all the details concerning the woman he was about to marry. He went out to the courthouse sidewalk, and returned with the lady on his arm.

Her name was Maria L. Payne, twice removed from Maria L. Imes, her maiden name. That this was her third venture on the sea was wrong from the prospective bride by the merciless clerk.

"I thought that law about those fool questions didn't go into effect until tomorrow," declared Mrs. Payne.

"Today," declared Williams. "If I had known that I wouldn't have come," she declared.

Joe Brandt said he was a native of Switzerland, aged 38, while the woman in the case confessed to 55, both of Los Angeles.

"Have you got a justice of the peace around here?" asked Mrs. Payne. "Let's get this done up quick."

Justice Smithwick hastened up and in the Board of Supervisors room he said the words that made them man and wife.

Brandt looked somewhat rattled, and failed to kiss the bride.

"You'll have to kiss the bride," said County Auditor Lester.

Brandt blushed. "We can wait till we get home," he said.

But the bride was no so minded. She took Joe gently by the neck, pulled him down—not unwillingly on his part—and planted a kiss where it belonged.

And then Joe did blush.

This is a busy month in the marriage license department. This June seems bent on breaking all records. Last June eighty-five licenses were issued by the clerk's office. Last month came to eighty-one. June this year has produced seventy-nine, and the office has four more working days after today to reach the record mark of eighty-five.

MRS. WOODILL'S SLAYER MAY HAVE BEEN A WOMAN

girl was the daughter of Ann Seetella Witz, the widow of Matthew Witz, and was born in Asotin, Wash., in 1886.

SECRETARY GAGE ANGRY OVER WOODILL STORY

SAN DIEGO, June 25.—"It is a shame to drag my name into this mess, simply because the poor girl's body was found in an eastern river," declared Lyman J. Gage, former Secretary of the Treasury, today, in discussing the tragic death of Mrs. Edith Thompson Woodill, who since her early youth has been regarded as a ward of Gage.

Just who Mrs. Woodill is, Gage refused to say. When pressed for an explanation of his interest in the girl, he became angry, and to his interrogator's intimation regarding the parentage of the young woman, he retorted, "Have your own guess." He declared he had never heard of Ernest Roberts' name connected with nest Roberts' name in connection with his former ward.

He admitted that Mrs. Woodill was in San Diego a month ago, and had been entertained by him in the Katherine Tingley School of Theosophy, of which Gage is a member. Finally in closing his taciturn interview, Gage showed resentment at having his name dragged into what he termed "a queer story."

Some Well-Meaning Folks

buy cheap stuff whenever they see it and get stung. They mean well when they do it, but they are usually "doing" themselves. Good goods always command a fair price. There is no such thing as "good goods cheap."

Have you bought your summer hat yet? You don't have to go to Los Angeles to buy a De Luxe derby or a Stetson beaver or a nifty straw. You can get that swagger stuff right here in Santa Ana from my bosses. Anyhow they say you can. Go in and tell them to make good their bluff.
